

Vintage

The 2021 vintage in the Edna Valley was defined by a long, cool growing season that allowed grapes to ripen slowly and evenly. Mild weather through summer preserved vibrant acidity, while pockets of warmth concentrated flavor and structure.

Sight

Deep Ruby Red with Light
Red rim

Nose

Inviting aromas of plum, blueberry, and cassis, accented by hints of rosemary, vanilla, and a subtle dustiness.

Palate

Medium-full bodied palate reveals layered flavors of plum, rhubarb, and black cherry, complemented by nuances of pie crust, licorice, and red beets.
